An Exclusive Learning Adventure for Members of LIFE at UCF
St. Augustine: 450 Years of History Comes Alive!
Sunday, March 18 to Friday, March 23, 2018

Program Summary:

Bright and bold living history awaits you in beautiful St. Augustine, Florida — the oldest city in America. What began as a Spanish fortress has transformed over the centuries into a charming seaside town brimming with Spanish, British and Venetian Renaissance architecture. Local experts — some in period dress — spin gripping tales and present a dramatic overview of the city’s remarkable history. Meet a soldier from Fort Mose to hear his stories, walk the sacred grounds of the Timucuan Indians and immerse yourself in the city’s unique Old World charm. Viva San Augustin!

Highlights:

- Discover a unique tapestry of history through the shared passions of park rangers, musicians, authors, storytellers and historians — some in period dress!
- Learn the legacy of Henry Flagler and his grand hotels, and admire Gilded Age works of Tiffany glass in historic buildings.
- At the Fountain of Youth, a Spanish archeology site, explore the multi-culturalism of St. Augustine with an author, playwright and performance artist during a live presentation.
